

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XX. STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1892. NO. 23

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Circuit court commenced Monday and everybody was in town.

—The children of the Swiss Sunday-school had a picnic at the Falls, Sunday.

—Senator Ed Parker came in Sunday and will attend circuit court here this week.

—The London boys had an interesting game of ball Saturday. The score stood, big boys, 37; kids, 9.

—Charles R. Brock is now a full fledged attorney at law and will have an office in the Catching building.

—Wm. Tanner, formerly of London, but now of Manchester, was here Saturday, as also was Editor L. D. Sampson, of Barbourville.

—There will be another wedding in a few weeks if Madam Rumer is correct and a handsome widower and charming widow will be the contracting parties.

—Joe Nance, of Clay, charged with manslaughter, was brought here Sunday by the jailer of that county, and will be tried at this term of the Laurel Circuit Court on charge of venue.

—A box party was at the courthouse, Friday night, by the Missionary Society and a nice sum was realized from the auction sale of boxes of grub and excellent ice cream afterwards.

—J. B. Oakley moved into the Catching building, last week, and the bank got in Monday. If those moneyed individuals of London, who invested in Pineville and Middleboro, had followed Mr. Catching's plan to build up our own town, they would have been better off financially, in owning property they could have realized on and the town, in which they made their money, would have also been benefited accordingly.

—On last Saturday, May 14, the democracy of Laurel county, Ky., assembled at the court-house in London at 2 p. m. in mass convention. John Pearl, chairman of the democratic committee, called the convention to order. Capt. W. T. Bryant was elected chairman and John W. Bastin, secretary.

R. M. Jackson, Geo. T. Farris, Patrick Casey, E. H. Hackney and D. R. Brock were appointed a committee on resolutions and brought in the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That we approve of the call of the State committee and of this committee.

2. That we reaffirm our allegiance to democratic principles as enunciated in the platform adopted by the National Democratic convention of 1888.

3. That R. M. Jackson, J. W. Bastin, F. B. Riley and Charles R. Brock be selected as delegates to the State convention to be held in the city of Louisville on the 25th of May.

4. That Carl Hanson W. G. Litton, Patrick Casey and J. C. Jones be selected as alternates.

5. That the delegates are instructed to vote for Hon. G. A. Denham, of Whitley and Chas. R. Brock, of Laurel, for delegates to the National convention, to be held in Chicago on the 21st of June.

6. That the delegates of Laurel county be instructed to use all honorable means to secure the instruction of the State of Kentucky for Grover Cleveland for president.

7. That our delegates to the State convention be instructed to vote for James A. McKenzie, John B. Castleman, J. S. Hindman and Henry Watterson for delegates from the State-at-large to the National Convention.

8. That the above proceedings be published in the Mt. Vernon Signal and INTERIOR JOURNAL. Adjourned.

Nellie W., 2:14, now in Crit Davis' stable, has been the text for much gossip. The Breeder and Sportsman makes the following contribution: "At Nashville last fall when Vic H., Rosaline Wilkes and Nellie W. trotted their great race, and the gray mare won, no one looked for her to be dangerous. The race was, in fact, conceded to Vic H., as Rosaline had a little trouble in one hook and Nellie W. was only hanging on to the company by her eyelids, or, at least, that was the way it looked. The play went on undisturbed until the scorching heat, when a hand was all that separated the three mares at the finish. Turner lifted, lunged and shoofed Rosaline in the most approved style, but could not get there. Vic H. got the heat and as he and Starr jogged back they were talking it over. Turner was puzzled and after he had rubbed his glasses a few times, turned to Starr and said in his terse way: 'George, where did that gray thing come from?'"

One of the delegates from Colorado to the Minneapolis convention is a full-blooded Indian, a descendant of the great Tecumseh, whom President Harrison's grand-father defeated in battle. One of the North Carolina delegates to the same convention, Mr. William Butler, is a son of Chang, one of the Siamer Twins of world-wide fame. Truly America is the land of the free and the home of the freak.

—New Mexico's capitol, built at a cost of $280,000, burned.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Keep your eye on Gov. Boies as a democratic presidential dark horse.

—Quite a crowd of our young folks attended the May meeting at the Fork Sunday.

—Miss Nannie Hopper will be married Wednesday to Mr. Ed Stephens, of Texas.

—The supper at Herring's School-house was well attended. The proceeds amounted to $50.

—Capt. E. W. Lillard has sold his property on Richmond avenue to Mrs. Sallie Ann Harris. Mr. W. A. Arnold is improving his property on Danville street.

—The delegates from this county were instructed to vote for Charles H. Rodes, of Boyle, and Jerry Sullivan, of Madison, for district delegates, and for William G. Welch, of Lincoln, for delegate-at-large.

—Mr. Walter Greening, of Hustonville, John Baughman, of Danville, and Jesse Swope, of Hubble, were here Sunday. Capt. E. W. Lillard and family, of Danville, spent Saturday in Lancaster. Rev. J. R. Terry has returned from a visit to Indiana. Rev. Amos Stout has returned from the Atlanta Baptist convention. Miss Mamie Curry is visiting in Danville. Mr. H. A. R. Marksbury is in Paint Lick on business. Miss Jennie Burns is visiting Miss Kate McGrath, of Bryantville. Miss Pattie Beazley has returned to Georgetown. Miss Ella May Farris was confirmed in the Catholic church Friday.

—The address of Mr. A. Y. Ford, of the Courier-Journal, at the meeting of the Press Association at Lexington, is replete with sound argument and bristles with facts that are worthy the attention of every representative of the press throughout the State. Nothing truer than this was ever spoken or written in the history of journalism: "The party organ tears down principle from the battle-standard. It puts men before measures. It looks to the applause of a faction. It charms the baggage train of political spoils-hunters, dragged in the lustre of party politics, this most potent influence and most solemn trust."

—Hon. William Lindsay, a member of the Kentucky Senate, is charged with the defeat of the fish bill. Senator Lindsay is a great lawyer and an excellent gentleman, but when he said "the bill was calculated to produce idlers and drunkards," he made a great mistake. A lazy man is rarely ever a successful fisherman, and of those who are addicted to the sport they are with but few exceptions men conspicuous for their energy and sobriety. Many of our public men were expert anglers; for instance, Patrick Henry was never so happy as when casting a fly. If this country, or any other, ever produced a greater orator than the great Virginian, it would be in order to give his name to the public. Perhaps the Senator has forgotten that the Apostles were fishermen, and they were neither idlers nor drunkards. President Arthur was a devoted fisherman and Ex-President Cleveland and Gen. Sheridan were no slouches in that line. It was wrong to defeat the bill and it would be right to reconsider it and pass it.

Mrs. Kate Huffman Walton.

Another good woman has gone to reap the reward of a true Christian. "Miss Kate," as many of us called her, and whom everybody loved, the wife of Mr. W. P. Walton, editor of the Stanford Interior Journal, after an illness of about three months, of peritonitis, died last Friday morning at 7:30. She was one of the best women I ever knew. She possessed all the personal attractions that has made Kentucky noted for its beautiful women—she was an ideal woman in every sense of the term. Even in her girlhood days she thought there was "no place like home," and when she grew to womanhood, home was to her the dearest place on earth. With kind words for everybody and the true friend of all, it is not to be wondered at that her friends were numberless. She had been a member of the Presbyterian church for many years. As the pastor, Rev. Ben Helm, said at the burial services, she bore her illness with a quietude and fortitude simply wonderful. It was a sad day in Stanford when we laid her in Buffalo Cemetery, to sleep till the resurrection morn. May the rich profusion of rare flowers, placed by loving hands on her grave, bloom till that last great day, and may her weeping husband and friends find solace in the thought that we shall all meet her "in the sweet bye-and-bye," in the land that is fairer than day. "Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep," was sung at the grave, and was so peculiarly appropriate in her case that it ought to have helped dry the fast-falling tears.—Joe F. Waters in Harrodsburg Sayings and Doings.

—In a shooting affray at Frankfort between John T. Johnson and Charles Owens, the latter was fatally wounded, Johnson shot in the arm and Judge Jett and Anthony Leach struck by stray bullets. Johnson had been intimate with Owens' wife.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The hop at D. G. Slaughter's was a success, as usual.

—The Keeley Institute has already several patients and look for more soon.

—Our brass band is coming out finely. They expect to play for several fairs this fall, and we have music often now.

—The boys of the brass band of Crab Orchard, upon receiving a pressing invitation, went to Brothhead Saturday night and played for a church supper.

—Mrs. S. M. Newland and Mrs. Mary Cochran, of Madison county, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Alice Newland and will visit friends and relatives in Lincoln during the week.

—Severance Post, No. 26, G. A. R., contemplates having a meeting on May 30th, for the purpose of decorating with flowers the graves of their deceased comrades, and ask all the citizens to participate.

—Hon. D. B. Edmiston returned to Frankfort Friday morning. Mrs. T. A. Gresham went to Stanford Saturday, after stopping a few days with her mother on her return from the mountains. Mr. Joe Magye went to Pittsburg last week to assist Mr. Carson in painting up the new houses in that town. Mrs. J. W. Bastin visited her brother, Mr. T. Napier, the first of last week. Mr. Jim Edmiston has gone to Gum Sulphur to run the store of Bastin & Collier at that place, they having bought out Mr. Frith's store, which they will run in connection with their mill. Miss Fannie Redd and Master Charley Cooper arrived home from Louisville Sunday evening. Messrs. T. M. Holmes, Charles A. Redd, Jr., Tom Redd and C. Parker went to Rockcastle River fishing, Monday, to be gone a week. They had a tent and were going to enjoy camp life, but the cold weather will seriously interfere with such arrangements.

—On May 4th, Mrs. John McClure left Crab Orchard on the evening train to go to Brothhead and was joined on the night train by Prof. Robert Lee Davis and went to Livingston, stopped at the Sambrook Hotel as man and wife, he claiming they were from Lebanon and had been married three months and he was looking for a school. They were very loving. He would sit and quote poetry by the hour, and she was very devoted, but as a number who knew them found out the true state of affairs, they came to Crab Orchard and began to investigate and learned that Davis had been a frequent visitor to the house when McClure would be absent and that they had taken frequent trips from home. The question now arose, who was to tell Mr. McClure, who is an excellent Christian gentleman, being treasurer and deacon in the Baptist church at this place, moral in every way and a devoted husband in every respect, besides being one of the most excellent families in the State. After relatives had talked it over it was decided that his brother-in-law should tell him. This was on the evening of the 12th. Mr. McClure at once sought his wife and told her, when she owned up to it all, saying she had been intimate with Mr. Davis for over seven months, and that although Mr. McClure had never given her a cross word and had been a perfectly devoted husband, she could never love him, and sought the company of other men. Mr. McClure at once took his little daughter, aged about three years, and went to his mother's, a heart-broken man. Mr. Davis at once began getting ready to leave on the night train and Mrs. McClure's trunk was brought to the depot with his and they both left on the night train May 12th. He said they would go to Chicago. And thus three homes are wrecked. Mrs. McClure's mother, who is the Widow Hunter, and her son John are heart broken. Davis' parents and sister are grieved deeply as can be and his mother being an invalid, is inconsolable as her hopes were all in Robert. And it is needless to describe the situation at Mr. McClure's home. The sympathy of the entire community is with them, and especially with the husband and child, who so little merited such heartless treatment. In the fall they had a little baby to die when no one else was present except Mrs. McClure, and it is now rumored she caused its death, as it died instantly and without cause, the child having been well a few minutes before, and although all the other members of the family were willing to an examination, Mrs. McClure so seriously objected that she was allowed her way and the child was buried without an investigation as to the cause of its death. It was learned from her that Davis was not her only admirer. The citizens, it is reported, gave Davis a good whipping before his departure for Chicago.

—Willie Martin, living near Mt. Sterling, was taken out of his house at night by a band of men and almost whipped to death. The only cause assigned is that Martin refused to work for one of the men in the party. Warrants have been issued for a number of prominent citizens of his section.

—The capitol building at Santa Fe was destroyed by fire. Loss, $250,000; with no insurance.

FOR GROVER CLEVELAND.

At a meeting of the democracy at the Court-House Saturday, to select delegates to the democratic State convention at Louisville, on May 25, Mr. A. K. Denny was made chairman and E. O. Walton secretary. Chairman Denny thanked those present for the honor bestowed on him and named the following committee on resolutions: W. E. Varnon, George P. Bright, W. H. Miller, G. A. Lackey, J. W. Alcorn and J. E. Lynn, who presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

We, your committee on resolutions, would respectfully report the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, 1st. That A. K. Denny, D. B. Edmiston, J. H. Carter, R. C. Warren, Dr. Green Moore, J. B. Paxton, R. R. Gentry, Wallace E. Varnon, F. M. Yowell, J. W. Alcorn, W. O. Hansford and W. P. Walton be appointed delegates to represent Lincoln county in the democratic State convention to be held in Louisville on May 25, 1892, to select delegates to the Chicago convention to nominate democratic candidates for president and vice-president of the United States, and nominate democratic candidates for electors for the State of Kentucky.

2. That the delegates selected above be instructed to cast the vote of Lincoln county for our countyman, Hon. W. G. Welch, for delegate from the State-at-large to the Chicago convention.

3. That said delegates be instructed to cast the vote of Lincoln county for Chas. H. Rodes, of Boyle, and F. D. Spotswood, of Mercer county, for delegates from the 8th Congressional district to the National democratic convention at Chicago. That said delegates be further instructed to vote for J. Mort Rothwell, of Garrard, for elector for the 8th Congressional district.

4. That in common with all true Kentuckians, we would be gratified to see our distinguished fellow citizen, Hon. John G. Carlisle, elected to the exalted position of president of the United States, but firmly believing that no one south of Mason and Dixon's line can be elected if nominated, we do not think it wise for Kentucky at this time to present his name before the Chicago convention as a candidate for president.

5. That Grover Cleveland, on account of the courageous stand he has taken on all public questions, more especially the tariff, and the able and just manner in which he administered public affairs during the four years he was president of the United States, has endeared himself to every patriotic citizen, and we therefore declare him our choice for the party nomination for the president of the United States.

6. That the said delegation cast the vote of Lincoln county for a resolution instructing the delegates from Kentucky to the National democratic convention at Chicago to vote for Grover Cleveland for president as long as his name is before that convention.

7. That the INTERIOR JOURNAL be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

Messrs. W. H. Miller and Bright Fennell were in favor of striking out the fifth clause and made speeches to that effect, but were overwhelmingly defeated, they being the only democrats in the meeting in favor of sending the delegates uninstructed. Timely and appropriate speeches favoring the entire resolutions were made by Judge W. E. Varnon, Judge J. W. Alcorn and Judge Stephen Hurch. The meeting then adjourned.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

Nearly all of the counties that held conventions Saturday have been heard from. Mr. Carlisle received 137 instructed votes to Mr. Cleveland's 91, but the latter is overwhelmingly the choice of the delegates appointed in counties where it was thought best not to instruct for, but simply endorse Cleveland. There will be 717 delegates to the convention and of the 548 heard from 321 are without peremptory instructions. In this district, Lincoln, Jackson and Mercer instructed for Cleveland; Madison, Shelby, Rockcastle, Boyle, Garrard and Spencer did not instruct, but favored his nomination. Jessamine instructed for Carlisle and Anderson alone appointed anti-Cleveland delegates. Only one of the Louisville districts, the 7th, instructed for Cleveland, but all endorsed him. Woodford county, the home of Senator Blackburn, gave whooping instructions for Cleveland, while Bourbon, where a Hill club was attempted to be organized, also instructed for the ex-president.

Rockcastle county sends its delegation to the State convention uninstructed. Hon. G. W. McClure was endorsed for district delegate.

Knox county instructed for Carlisle for president and Watterson, Lindsay, McKenzie and Judge J. W. Alcorn for delegates at large. Bell instructed for Cleveland and so did Laurel and Wayne. Pulaski did not instruct except for Hon. O. H. Waddle for district delegate.

Fayette county didn't instruct but named Cleveland delegates, so did Christian, while Warren instructed straight out for him.

SENATOR JOHN S. BARBOUR, of Virginia, died suddenly at Washington Saturday morning of heart failure. During his life of 71 years he was often honored by a constituency which held him in the highest esteem. He was a power in Virginia politics and did more than any other man to redeem the State from Mahone and republican rule. His senatorial term began at the expiration of Senator Riddleberger's and since then he had taken a leading position in that body. It will devolve on Gov. McKinney to appoint his successor and it will likely be Hon. K. C. Murray, editor of the Norfolk Landmark, who so ably managed his canvass.

JUDGE TONEY decided in the lottery cases that the charter in the Henry County Lottery had expired, but that the Frankfort Lottery had vested rights, which neither constitution nor legislature could take away. The case will be appealed and in the meantime should drawings be resumed Attorney General Hendrick will institute criminal proceedings under the Goebel law. In the face of public sentiment so strongly against the octopus, it took considerable courage to render the decision that Judge Toney did, and if he is right we admire him for it.

A few years ago the republicans were driven out of power in the House for passing a $200,000 river and harbor appropriation. In the face of this and regardless of it, a democratic House has passed a bill for immediate expenditure for rivers and harbors of $23,000,000 and $27,000,000 for future expenditures, in all $50,000,000. The democratic party is under obligations to see that the government is economically administered. Can it expect to be retained in power if its promises are so flagrantly violated?

ACCORDING to a table published in Sunday's Cincinnati Commercial Gazette Harrison has 420 of the 598 delegates to the convention at Minneapolis, leaving him only 30 more to get out of 123 uninstructed, a majority being all that is necessary to secure the republican nomination, while the democratic nomination cannot be secured short of two-thirds of all the votes. The same table gives 399 delegates favorable to Blaine, who can get the nomination for a word.

LIGHTNING may not strike twice in the same place, but cyclones are not so particular. Towanda, Kansas, was visited by another cyclone Friday, which followed in the track of the one in March and destroyed all the houses rebuilt since. Except for the Tower of Siloam incident mentioned in the Bible and Christ's remarks thereon, we might be led to infer that God's vengeance was especially directed towards that place for its wickedness.

OUT of an abundance of caution many counties did not instruct for Cleveland, preferring to see whether it is true or not he is the most available candidate. Kentucky is ten to one for the ex-president and if the wishes of the boys in the trenches are respected he will get the vote of the State first, last and all the time.

The editor of the Louisville Critic addresses an open letter to Mr. Watterson, which is both amusing and pointed. Kentucky wants to instruct for Cleveland and Mr. Watterson thinks it suicidal to do so, yet he asks to be a delegate. The Critic very naturally asks: "If the State Convention endorses Cleveland and insists upon his nomination, will you accept the position of delegate-at-large to Chicago? You owe it to your party in Kentucky, you owe it to the Courier-Journal, you owe it to yourself to rise up and say something." Viewing the clouds upon the horizon critically, and being something of a weather prophet, as an old friend and admirer I beseech you, Mr. Henry Watterson, to come in out of the wet."

This is the way Mr. Watterson speaks of the Tammany crowd and yet he wants to permit it to dictate the presidential nomination: "They are a band of professional politicians, made up of demagogues, time servers, spoilsmen and jobbers, who would no more hesitate to knife a National ticket objectionable to them than to scuttle a ship or cut a throat, or take a drink." The New York Recorder, in a position to know whereof it speaks, says "The lines are harsh, but the portraiture is perfect."

Gov. McCREARY thinks that Congress can adjourn by July 15. The business, so far as appropriation bills are concerned, is farther advanced than usual, eight out of 13 of such bills have been passed. The Senate may attempt to delay adjournment by refusing to concur in measures, but so far as the House is concerned everything will be ready for putting up the shutters about the middle of July.

One of the Kentucky delegates to the republican convention at Minneapolis may not attend, owing to circumstances over which at present he has no control. He is under arrest for opening registered letters, and by the time the convention meets he may be serving his country in another capacity. A. O. Huffman is his name and he hails from Hart county.

We are just in receipt of the Russellville Ledger, which was recently taken in charge by Mr. Walter P. Emerson, of the Louisville Times, and found that half the good things about it had not been told. Mr. Emerson is a thoroughly equipped journalist and will make the Ledger a power in the land.

This instructed vote for Carlisle is a surprise to us. Laurie Blakely with his Carlisle and forward steps in tariff reform, in addition to his fine editorials must have done it.

THE Danville boys will play the Interior Journal club Friday, instead of today. The I. J.'s will be stronger than they were at Danville and a better game may be expected.

WOOL.—100,000 pounds wanted and at highest cash market price. Will have agents at Paint Lick, Lancaster, McKinney and Hustonville. See them before you sell. A. T. Nunnally.

THE Hustonville Fair is a certainty. A number of citizens met Saturday afternoon and elected George Miller Givens president; W. R. Williams, secretary, and June Hocker, treasurer. The fair will be held on Thursday and Friday, July 25th and 26th.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of W. G. Hubble, dec'd, will present them properly verified to M. J. Hubble, adm'r, or L. F. Hubble, for payment. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will pay the same to C. Bishop or L. F. Hubble.

FARMERS tell us that the wheat prospects are very fine and a big crop will be harvested with no further drawback. The grass is very luxuriant and the corn is looking well. Some farmers are not through planting yet, but Mr. John Bright tells us the best corn he raised last year was planted June 10.

WHILE returning from the circus at Danville Thursday night, the horse driven by Messrs. Sam M. Holmes and A. H. Fish became frightened at a train just beyond Rowland and turning suddenly, the buggy was upset. The occupants were both badly bruised up, but fortunately no bones were broken.

ASSESSOR L. M. LARLEY tells us that there are 324 polls in the city, 110 of which are colored. The latter have 90 dogs and the whites 66, at least that is all he could find owners for. The property assessed last year was $358,025, and the total poll last year 287. The present assessment will reach $510,000, a raise of $142,000, which is pretty good work for the competent assessor.

W. H. MILLER and Bright Ferrill are the only Hill men in the county that we know of, at least they were the only ones that showed up in the convention in opposition to instructing for Cleveland. They are a lonesome pair unless Hill should get there, which he stands no earthly chance of doing, but if he should they would they be the Big Two.

THE city council has fixed a tax of 50 cents on each dog, to be paid the first of each June. A collar will be furnished and all dogs caught on the streets without one will be shot by the marshal. This is better than nothing, but we hope that the council will raise the license to $1. That is little enough and the smallest sum exacted in any town which taxes dogs.

RYNAWAYS.—The horse driven by Mrs. Spence Hubble ran away, as she was returning from Rush Branch church, Sunday afternoon and she was thrown out with terrific force, breaking her left arm just above the elbow. The horse driven by Mrs. Col. J. M. Beazley and daughters, also ran away while returning from the same church, but nobody was hurt.

THE game of ball between the Interior Journal and Danville at Danville resulted in a decided victory for the latter club. The score was 18 to 3, and while our club expected defeat they had no idea that they would be beaten so badly. Cummins and Turner were the battery and the latter did excellent work, but was poorly supported by Cummins, who was in bad shape. Turner made one of the three scores and was left on third, to which position he had gotten by knocking a beautiful three-bagger. Our club will be much stronger when it enters the league and this game should be no evidence of what they will do at the proper time. We are still betting dollars to doughnuts on the I. J.'s.

DOWN STAIRS room for rent with day board. Day boarders wanted. Mrs. Kate Duddar.

MR. J. W. HAYDEN has had contracts printed and will canvass the town to arrange with those who wish to take water and electric lights. The prices for both are very low.

DON'T be carried off by advertisements of watches, clocks and jewelry at reduced prices. Remember that I always sell the lowest, no matter what others advertise. A. R. Penny.

HOUSE PAINTING AND DECORATING.—Jesse C. Ramsey takes contracts for all kinds of painting and guarantees satisfaction. Prices to suit the times. Orders left at A. R. Penny's will receive prompt attention.

GRAND STAND.—A. C. Alford and J. T. Blankenship will build a grand stand on the Interior Journal base ball grounds on H. J. Darst's farm, near J. C. Elmore's store, with a seating capacity of several hundred. It is their individual enterprise and they expect to get their money back by charging 10 cents a seat in it.

RRO. BARNES.—After a long absence, for the most part in the Old World, Rev. George O. Barnes, wife and Misses Marie and Georgie Barnes, returned to loved ones here Saturday night, and went at once to the Coffey House. They are all looking well and time has wrought little or no change in any of them. Sunday afternoon Mr. Barnes preached at the Court House to an audience that tested the capacity of the circuit court-room and listened with rapt attention to the eloquent and noted speaker. After several beautiful songs by the evangelist, Misses Marie and Georgie Barnes, Mr. Barnes stated that his text would be "To-day thou shalt be with Me in Paradise." The speaker commenced by expressing his delight at again appearing before a Stanford audience of friends. He preached a splendid discourse and forcibly and clearly presented the gospel of "God is Love." Mr. Barnes stated his more earnest convictions as to divine healing and told the audience how the good Lord had removed a cancerous sore from his face when noted doctors had failed to help it at all. The meetings will likely go on through the week, in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and at night at 7:30 o'clock, the afternoon being principally devoted to the faith cure. At the close of his sermon Mr. Barnes stated that he had left Scotland $1,000 in debt and that he hoped and expected to raise that amount in Kentucky. He did not desire that a few friends pay that large debt, but thought it best that collections be taken at every meeting and hats were passed through the audience by Messrs. J. C. Hays and S. M. Owens, when a liberal response was made.

Another good crowd gathered yesterday afternoon, when the subject of his discourse was, "Submit yourselves to God; resist the devil and he will flee from you." At the conclusion six of his old followers went up for anointing, when Mr. Barnes remarked that people would say, "There go the same old moss-grown Barnesites, but they ney needit mind that."
